

NORTH DISTRICT PROFILE

The North District is one of Raleigh's quintessential residential areas. The District contains several older neighborhoods such as North Ridge but also many newer developments, such as Wakefield, that stretch northward to Wake Forest. Of the ten districts, the North District is the most populous, with 73,483 residents in 2006. It has the second largest recent population growth of the districts, with 15,356 additional people added between 2000 and 2006. The population of the North District is expected to increase 37 percent by 2030. The district is crossed by several major road corridors, including Creedmoor, Six Forks, Falls of Neuse, Spring Forest and Durant Roads. Shelley Lake Park and Millbrook High School are landmarks in the district.
